Harvey Park Community Organization Announces Artist Open Studios

Event Date: Saturday, October 26, 2024 | Location: Harvey Park, Harvey Park South, and Southwest Denver

Denver, CO – The Harvey Park Community Organization (HPCO) is excited to announce the upcoming Southwest Denver Artist Open Studios, scheduled for Saturday, October 26, 2024. This art walk, organized by HPCO volunteer and southwest-Denver-based artist/designer/genealogist Shokai Sinclair, and supported by a grant from the Community Active Living Coalition, invites artists and community members to engage with southwest Denver's vibrant art scene through open studios and an interactive art crawl map. For more information or to apply as a participating artist, visit <https://harveypark.org> or contact HPCO at shokai@harveypark.org.

Who should apply?

Applications are open until Saturday, October 12, 2024, to visual artists, musicians, writers, potters, and other creatives living or working in Southwest Denver. This event offers a fantastic opportunity for artists to showcase their work, connect with the community, and gain exposure through HPCO's marketing efforts, including social media, and press releases.

Event features

- Open studios: Artists will open their creative spaces to the public, allowing visitors to experience their workspaces and purchase original art.
- Art crawl map: Multilingual and user-friendly digital and printed maps will guide visitors through the art walk, highlighting participating artists and points of interest.

Please note

HPCO and event organizers are not responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged items during the event. Participants are encouraged to take precautions to safeguard their belongings.

About HPCO
